

Begin review of bird mortality due to communication towers;start research program funded by communications industry to identify tower placement,design,lighting resulting in bird mortality;begin review of all existing towers to assess what placement/design causes bird mortality;require strict environmental review of all proposed towers;implement immediate protections based on existing knowledge such as the voluntary siting and placement guidelines developed by U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service. Thank you.